

- Clerk. SEC. 23. There shall be a clerk of said court, who shall be a qualified voter of the county of Cumberland, who shall be elected as in this act provided. Before entering upon the duties of his office, said clerk shall enter into a bond, with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the recorder of said court, in the sum of two thousand dollars, for the true and faithful performance of his duties as clerk and for the faithful accounting for all moneys which may come into his hands as such clerk. It shall also be the duty of said clerk to file with the Treasurer of Cumberland County on the first day of each calendar month an itemized statement of all costs, fees, and other moneys coming into his hands, and to pay over to said treasurer at said time all such sums as the county may be entitled to under this act. He shall also file with the treasurer of the city of Fayetteville an itemized statement of all fees, costs, and penalties to which it is entitled, and shall pay over the same to the said treasurer on the first day of each month. Said statements shall be verified on oath by the clerk. All fees required to be paid by this act to county or municipal officers who are on salary shall be paid to the clerk of the recorder's court, unless otherwise provided herein, who shall account for and pay over the same as required by this act.
- Bond of clerk.
- Monthly settlements.
- Verification of statements.
Fees of salaried officers.
- Vacancies. SEC. 24. Any vacancy occurring in the office of recorder or prosecuting attorney or clerk of said court shall be filed by the board of commissioners of Cumberland County.
- Cases pending. SEC. 25. All cases pending in the Superior Court, in the courts of justices of the peace, or other courts of Cumberland County, on the first Monday in June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, shall be tried in that court where pending, and not transferred to the recorder's court for trial.
- Procedure. SEC. 26. The procedure in the recorder's court of Cumberland County, except that hereinbefore provided, shall follow the rules and practice laid down in the chapter on Criminal Procedure and the chapter on Civil Procedure in the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, and amendments thereto, in so far as same may be adapted to the needs and requirements of said court; such changes in the rules of procedure as may be determined by the said court to be duly published.
- Appointment of first officers. SEC. 27. The board of commissioners of Cumberland County, at their meeting to be held the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, shall appoint all officers of said court, who upon their qualification shall serve from the first Monday in June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and until their successors are elected and qualified as hereinbefore provided.
- SEC. 28. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this the 5th day of March, A. D. 1913.
